

New Hampshire Department of Health and Human Services
Division for Children, Youth and Families (DCYF)
Parent Consultant

ADDENDUM #2

On January 22, 2019, the New Hampshire Department of Health and Human Services published a Request for Applications (RFA) soliciting applications for a Birth Parent Consultant to serve as a trusted advisor to the Department to improve child welfare outcomes such as safety, permanency and well-being.

Pursuant to Section 2.8, Subsection 2.8.1, Non-Commitment, of RFA-DCYF-2019-06-PAREN (Division for Children, Youth and Families [DCYF] Parent Consultant), the Department hereby cancels this RFA.

Should the Department issue an RFA for the same services as described in RFA-DCYF-2019-06-PAREN potential applicants shall be notified via the same process as the previous RFA.
